

BELOW IS A LETTER TO COPY AND PASTE TO USE TO EMAIL / CALL / SEND TO YOUR BISHOP OR MANY BISHOPS IMMEDIATELY BEFORE MARCH 25.

March 17, 2022

Dear Bishop [Archbishop] [Cardinal] _____ ,

It is with great urgency that I write you to ask that, with great faith and hope, you would join Pope Francis in a few days on March 25, 2022, and in union with him, say a prayer of consecration of Russia and the Ukraine to the Immaculate Heart of Mary. It was just reported by the Catholic New Agency that the Latin American bishops will join Pope Francis in this consecration, as well.

History and the present time of war tell us that Our Lady's promise of peace if Russia was consecrated to her Immaculate Heart in union with all the Bishops of the world, has not happened in its fullness. The stakes are nothing less that world peace, or potentially, another World War.

Please also encourage everyone in your diocese, at this critical hour, to make Communions of Reparation on 5 consecutive 1st Saturdays, as Our Lady requested (with Confession, reception of Communion, a Rosary and a 15-minute meditation on the mysteries of the Rosary).

Please help Our Lady grant to the world the peace, which she said in Fatima rides on the conditions of our response. Below are her exact words, should you desire to see them. In the spirit of being of service to you and not presuming to know what words of consecration you might prefer, I am also humbly including below beautiful words extracted and adapted from Pope John Paul II's consecration after he concelebrated Mass in Fatima, on May 13, 1982.

In July 1917, Our Lady of Fatima gave the three visionaries this message, asking for the explicit consecration of Russia to her Immaculate Heart:

To prevent this [war], I shall come to ask for the consecration of Russia to my Immaculate Heart, and the Communion of reparation on the First Saturdays. If my requests are heeded, Russia will be converted, and there will be peace; if not, she will spread her errors throughout the world, causing wars and persecutions of the Church. The good will be martyred; the Holy Father will have much to suffer; various nations will be annihilated. In the end, my Immaculate Heart will triumph. The Holy Father will consecrate Russia to me, and she shall be converted, and a period of peace will be granted to the world.

Our Lady of Fatima repeated the request in 1929, when she appeared to Sr. Lucia saying: "The moment has come in which God asks the Holy Father to make, and to order that in union with him and at the same time, all the bishops of the world make the consecration of Russia to My Immaculate Heart, promising to convert it because of this day of prayer and worldwide reparation."

Sr. Lucia would continue to receive apparitions, including one in 1929 in which Our Lady repeated her request to have Russia consecrated to her Immaculate Heart:

The moment has come in which God asks the Holy Father, in union with all the Bishops of the world, to make the consecration of Russia to my Immaculate Heart, promising to save it by this means. There are so many souls whom the Justice of God condemns for sins committed against me, that I have come to ask reparation: sacrifice yourself for this intention and pray. (Lucia's Sixth Apparition – June 13, 1929)

The following is taken and adapted from Pope John Paul II's act of consecration of the modern world to Our Lady of Fatima on Thursday, 13 May 1982. (Two years prior to his well-known 1984 official consecration of the world to the Immaculate Heart of Mary.)

TO BE SAID ON MARCH 25, IN UNION WITH POPE FRANCIS:

O Mother of individuals and peoples, you who “know all their sufferings and their hopes,” you who have a mother's awareness of all the struggles between good and evil, between light and darkness, which afflict the modern world, accept the cry which we, as though moved by the Holy Spirit, address directly to your Heart. Embrace, with the love of the Mother and Handmaid, Russia and the Ukraine, which we entrust and consecrate to you, for we are full of disquiet for the earthly and eternal destiny of individuals and peoples.

We have recourse to your protection, holy Mother of God: reject not the prayers we send up to you in our necessities. Reject them not! Accept our humble trust and our act of entrusting!

“For God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, that whoever believes in him should not perish but have eternal life” (Jn 3:16). It was precisely by reason of this love that the Son of God consecrated himself for all mankind: “And for their sake I consecrate myself, that they also may be consecrated in truth” (Jn 17:19).

By reason of that consecration the disciples of all ages are called to spend themselves for the salvation of the world, and to supplement Christ's afflictions for the sake of his body, that is the Church (cf. 2 Cor 12:15; Col 1:24).

Before you, Mother of Christ, before your Immaculate Heart, I today, together with Pope Francis, unite myself with our Redeemer in this this consecration for Russia and the Ukraine, which only in the Lord's divine Heart has the power to obtain pardon and to secure reparation.

The power of this consecration lasts for all time and embraces all individuals, peoples and nations. It overcomes every evil that the spirit of darkness is able to awaken, and has in fact awakened in our times, in the heart of man and in his history.

The Church, the Mystical Body of Christ, unites herself, through the service of Peter's successor, to this consecration by our Redeemer. Oh, how deeply we feel the need for consecration in union with Christ himself! The redeeming work of Christ, in fact, must be shared in by the world by means of the Church.

Oh, how pained we are by all the things in the Church and in each one of us that are opposed to holiness and consecration! How pained we are that the invitation to repentance, to conversion, to prayer, has not met with the acceptance that it should have received!

How pained we are that many share so coldly in Christ's work of Redemption! That “what is lacking in Christ's afflictions” is so insufficiently completed in our flesh.

And so, blessed be all those souls that obey the call of eternal Love! Blessed be all those who, day after day, with undiminished generosity accept your invitation, O Mother, to do what your Jesus tells them (cf. Jn 2:5) and give the Church and the world a serene testimony of lives inspired by the Gospel.

Above all blessed be you, the Handmaid of the Lord, who in the fullest way obey the divine call!

Hail to you, who are wholly united to the redeeming consecration of your Son!

Mother of the Church! Enlighten the People and Leaders of Russia and the Ukraine along the paths of faith, of hope and love! Help us to live with the whole truth of the consecration of Christ for the entire human family of the modern world.

In entrusting to you, O Mother, Russia and the Ukraine, we also entrust to you the consecration itself, placing it in your motherly Heart.

Oh, Immaculate Heart! Help us to conquer the menace of evil, which so easily takes root in the hearts of the people of today, and whose immeasurable effects already weigh down upon our modern world and seem to block the paths towards the future!

From famine and war, deliver us. From nuclear war, from incalculable self-destruction, from every kind of war, deliver us. From sins against the life of man from its very beginning, deliver us.

From hatred and from the demeaning of the dignity of the children of God, deliver us. From every kind of injustice in the life of society, both national and international, deliver us. From readiness to trample on the commandments of God, deliver us. From attempts to stifle in human hearts the very truth of God, deliver us. From sins against the Holy Spirit, deliver us, deliver us.

Accept, O Mother of Christ, this cry laden with the sufferings of all individual human beings, laden with the sufferings of whole societies.

Let there be revealed, once more, in the history of the world your infinite power of merciful Love. May it put a stop to evil. May it transform consciences. May your Immaculate Heart reveal for all the light of Hope.

Sincerely,
